-----X

Plaintiff Ciro Fabio Tovar (“Plaintiff Tovar” or “Mr. Tovar”), individually and on behalf of others similarly situated, by and through his attorneys, Michael Faillace & Associates, P.C., upon his knowledge and belief, and as against The Empire Shoe Repairing Corp. (d/b/a Empire Shoe Repair), (“Defendant Corporation”) and George Dzhurayev, (“Individual Defendant”), (collectively, “Defendants”), alleges as follows:

NATURE OF ACTION

1. Plaintiff Tovar is a former employee of Defendants The Empire Shoe Repairing Corp. (d/b/a Empire Shoe Repair) and George Dzhurayev.
2. Defendants own, operate, or control a shoe repair shop, located at 991 Lexington Ave, New York, NY 10021 under the name “Empire Shoe Repair”.

3. Upon information and belief, individual Defendant George Dzhurayev, serves or served as owner, manager, principal, or agent of Defendant Corporation and, through this corporate entity, operates or operated the shoe repair shop as a joint or unified enterprise.

4. Plaintiff Tovar was employed as a shoe and bag repairer at the shoe repair shop located at 991 Lexington Ave, New York, NY 10021.

5. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Plaintiff Tovar worked for Defendants in excess of 40 hours per week, without appropriate minimum wage and overtime compensation for the hours that he worked.

6. Rather, Defendants failed to maintain accurate recordkeeping of the hours worked and failed to pay Plaintiff Tovar appropriately for any hours worked, either at the straight rate of pay or for any additional overtime premium.

7. Defendants' conduct extended beyond Plaintiff Tovar to all other similarly situated employees.

8. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff Tovar and other employees to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without providing the minimum wage and overtime compensation required by federal and state law and regulations.

9. Plaintiff Tovar now brings this action on behalf of himself, and other similarly situated individuals, for unpaid minimum and overtime wages pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. ("FLSA"), and for violations of the N.Y. Labor Law §§ 190 et seq. and 650 et seq. (the "NYLL"), including applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorneys' fees and costs.

10. Plaintiff Tovar seeks certification of this action as a collective action on behalf of himself, individually, and all other similarly situated employees and former employees of Defendants pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

11. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question) and the FLSA, and supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff Tovar's state law claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

12. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c) because all, or a substantial portion of, the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this district, Defendants maintain their corporate headquarters and offices within this district, and Defendants operate a shoe repair shop located in this district. Further, Plaintiff Tovar was employed by Defendants in this district.

h) Other actions evincing a failure to adhere to the corporate form.

26. At all relevant times, Defendants were Plaintiff Tovar's employers within the meaning of the FLSA and New York Labor Law. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff Tovar, controlled the terms and conditions of employment, and determined the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for Plaintiff Tovar's services.

27. In each year from 2014 to 2017, Defendants, both separately and jointly, had a gross annual volume of sales of not less than $500,000 (exclusive of excise taxes at the retail level that are separately stated).

28. In addition, upon information and belief, Defendants and/or their enterprise were directly engaged in interstate commerce. As an example, numerous items that were used in the shoe repair shop on a daily basis are goods produced outside of the State of New York.

Individual Plaintiff

29. Plaintiff Tovar is a former employee of Defendants who was employed as shoe and bag repairer. Plaintiff Tovar seeks to represent a class of similarly situated individuals under 29 U.S.C. 216(b).

Plaintiff Ciro Fabio Tovar

30. Plaintiff Tovar was employed by Defendants from approximately January 2014 until on or about May 31, 2016 and from approximately August 1, 2016 until on or about December 2017.

32. Plaintiff Tovar regularly handled goods in interstate commerce, such as shoe repair equipment and other supplies produced outside the State of New York.

33. Plaintiff Tovar's work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

34. Throughout his employment with Defendants, Plaintiff Tovar regularly worked in excess of 40 hours per week.

43. No notification, either in the form of posted notices or other means, was ever given to Plaintiff Tovar regarding overtime and wages under the FLSA and NYLL.

44. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff Tovar an accurate statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

45. Defendants did not give any notice to Plaintiff Tovar of his rate of pay, employer's regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

Defendants' General Employment Practices

46. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff Tovar (and all similarly situated employees) to work in excess of 40 hours a week without paying him appropriate minimum wage and overtime compensation as required by federal and state laws.

47. Plaintiff Tovar was a victim of Defendants' common policy and practices which violate his rights under the FLSA and New York Labor Law by, inter alia, not paying him the wages he was owed for the hours he worked.

48. Defendants' pay practices resulted in Plaintiff Tovar not receiving payment for all his hours worked, and resulted in Plaintiff Tovar's effective rate of pay falling below the required minimum wage rate.

49. Defendants willfully disregarded and purposefully evaded recordkeeping requirements of the FLSA and NYLL by failing to maintain accurate and complete timesheets and payroll records.

50. Defendants paid Plaintiff Tovar his wages in a combination of check and cash.

51. Defendants failed to post at the workplace, or otherwise provide to employees, the required postings or notices to employees regarding the applicable wage and hour requirements of the FLSA and NYLL.

52. Upon information and belief, these practices by Defendants were done willfully to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiff Tovar (and similarly situated individuals) worked, and to avoid paying Plaintiff Tovar properly for his full hours worked.

53. Defendants engaged in their unlawful conduct pursuant to a corporate policy of minimizing labor costs and denying employees compensation by knowingly violating the FLSA and NYLL.

54. Defendants' unlawful conduct was intentional, willful, in bad faith, and caused significant damages to Plaintiff Tovar and other similarly situated workers.

55. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Tovar and other employees with accurate wage statements at the time of their payment of wages, containing: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked; and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL §195(3).

56. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Tovar and other employees, at the time of hiring and on or before February 1 of each subsequent year, a statement in English and the employees' primary language, containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any “doing business as” names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by New York Labor Law §195(1).

58. At all relevant times, Plaintiff Tovar and other members of the FLSA Class were similarly situated in that they had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, and have been subject to Defendants’ common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans including willfully failing and refusing to pay them the required minimum wage, overtime pay at a one and one-half their regular rates for work in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek under the FLSA, and willfully failing to keep records under the FLSA.
